

Weekly Bulletin for the City High School Community ~ February 28 '08

Principal's Notes

We have had problems with our internet service throughout the week, and appreciate everyone's patience with the related communication problems. If you've been waiting to hear back from a City High staff person via email, please excuse the. We replaced our router and all should be good from here on out.

Volunteer Work Day on Saturday

Join the City High Parents group on Saturday morning, March 1 from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. to help get the alley back in shape as an eating area and outdoor classroom. Volunteers are encouraged to bring work gloves and gardening or carpentry tools. Supplies needed include potting soil, outdoor pots, drought-tolerant plants, and leftover paint for touching up wooden tables. Parents, students, and staff are all encouraged to participate. Pizza lunch provided. For more information, contact Carrie Brennan.

Job Fair at City High, March 8

If you know of any teachers who might be interested in working at City High School, please let them know that we are holding a job fair on Saturday, March 8 from 9:00-12:00 noon. The following ad is currently running in the AZ Daily Star classified section on Wednesdays and Sundays:

CITY HIGH SCHOOL seeks creative and committed teachers to further develop its educational program as the school enters its fifth year. Current openings for 2008-2009 include math (primarily 9th grade algebra) and humanities/social studies (background in political science and economics required). Candidates are invited to a JOB FAIR at City High School on March 8, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. City High School seeks to have an adult staff that reflects the diversity of its student population; minority candidates are encouraged to apply. For more information, call 623-7223 x203 or visit <http://www.cityhighschool.org>.

Upcoming Field Trips on March 6

• Chamber Music Festival

Next Thursday morning all Division 2 students will attend a student concert as part of Tucson's annual Chamber Music Festival. The 10th and 11th graders will walk to the Leo Rich Theater. There is room for a few parent volunteers to join the group as extra chaperones. If you are interested, please contact Brett Goble, bgoble@cityhighschool.org or 623-7223 x220.

• Careers for the 21st Century/Tech Expo

Each year the Metropolitan Education Commission sponsors a careers and technology conference for high school students. This year the event will take place at the Pima Air & Space Museum on March 6. We have room for up to 20 students to participate. All interested students must sign up with Elliott Lax or Cathy Hammer by early next week. For more information, contact Elliott, 623-7223 x201.
